Regulation E Alert: Rule Changes to EFT for OD Protection

Deborah Crawford, gettechnical, inc.

February 12 • 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

The Federal Reserve Board has issued new rules for Regulation E which will give consumers the right to limit the overdraft costs associated with ATM and one-time debit card transactions by giving consent or opting-in to the program. Financial institutions must comply with the new rules by July 1, 2010. This important webinar will cover the new legislation and the impact on your bank and your customers.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Requirements for overdraft services
- Fees imposed and limits on fees charged
- Alternative plans for covering overdrafts
- Continuing right to opt-in or revoke the opt-in

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Compliance officers, back office staff who handle overdrafts, branch managers, customer service representatives, and training personnel
